Advance notice—The flight plan provides advance notice of foreign airspace penetration. (For some foreign states, the flight plan is the only advance notice required; for others, it checks against previously granted permission to enter national airspace.)

Before departure—Leave a complete itinerary and time schedule of the flight with others directly concerned, keep them advised of the flight's progress, and instruct them to contact the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate if there is any doubt as to the safety of the flight.

Filing outside the United States—In a foreign country, inquire how to transmit flight plan information to pertinent en route and destination points.

Standard international flight plan form—FAA Form 7233-4 is available at most U.S. FSSs, from AOPA's Aviation Services department, and at www.aopa.org/members/files/travel/7233-4.pdf (AOPA members only access).

GATE and CANPASS

General Aviation Telephonic Entry (GATE)

Note: Until further notice, GATE service from Canada into the United States is suspended.

CANPASS—Private Aircraft Program

Pilots and passengers traveling on a Canadian- or American-registered aircraft entering Canada directly from the United States must use a telephone reporting system to receive permission from Canadian Customs or Immigration officials to enter Canada. The aircraft may be private, company-owned, or a small charter carrying no more than 15 passengers. Notification must be made by calling 888/CAN-PASS (888/226-7277) two to 72 hours in advance of arrival. Pilots and passengers are still required to carry the necessary personal identification, immigration, and aircraft documents.

Application—United States citizens, resident aliens, and Canadian citizens may apply for participation in the CANPASS program by completing a CANPASS application form. The form, together with Canadian $25, should be submitted to CANPASS-Private Aircraft Program, Post Office Box 126, Niagara Falls, Ontario L2E 6T1; telephone 204/983-3500.

Note: The CANPASS application form and fee may be waived for casual use of the program.

CANPASS information online—Details may be found online; www.ccr-aadrc.gc.ca/customs/individuals/canpass/air/menu-e.html and www.aopa.org/members/files/travel/canada/canpass.html (AOPA members only access).

Special Reporting Requirements

General

Private aircraft entering the United States from south of the Mexican border or Pacific, Gulf of Mexico, or Atlantic coastlines must comply with special reporting requirements.

How to comply

Advance notice—Upon return to the United States from the Southern Hemisphere (south of 30 degrees north latitude and east of 86 degrees west longitude on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, and also south of 33 degrees north latitude and west of 86 degrees west longitude on the Pacific Coast), provide advance notice of arrival to U.S. Customs at a designated airport that is nearest to the point of crossing the U.S. border or coastline.

Inspection—Land at the designated airport for inspection.

Time of notification—Provide advance notice of arrival at least one hour prior to crossing the U.S. coastline or border. More advance notice may be required during other than regular business hours.

Notification information—Must include:

1. Aircraft registration number.
2. Name of pilot in command.
3. Place of last departure.
4. Estimated time and location of border/coastline crossing.
5. Name of U.S. airport of first landing.
6. Number of U.S. citizen passengers.
7. Number of resident and nonresident alien passengers.
8. ETA.

How to provide notification—Contact Customs via telephone and include an ADCUS notice in your flight plan. However, the ADCUS notation in the flight plan does not guarantee that Customs personnel will receive the ETA notification. ETA notification is your responsibility. It is therefore strongly suggested that you advise Customs of your ETA by telephone to ensure they have been notified, and that you ask for the name and badge number of the Customs official.

ADIZ penetration notice—When not arriving from a foreign location but crossing the boundary of the air defense identification zone (ADIZ), you are required to give a 15-minute penetration notice, but you are not required to land and report to Customs. File a defense visual flight rules (DVFR) flight plan, and contact Customs via telephone one hour prior to crossing the border or coastline.

Note: See Chapter 5, Section 6, of the Aeronautical Information Manual (AIM) for detailed information on ADIZ operations and boundaries.

U.S. Customs and Immigration Requirements and Regulations

Outbound travel

Customs clearance—Pilots and passengers on nonrevenue flights are normally not required to clear Customs when leaving the United States. However, certain countries require Department of State and Department of Commerce validated licenses and pre-clearances.

Customs declaration—Declare currency in excess of $10,000.

Nonresident alien—All nonresident aliens must clear U.S. Immigration prior to departure.

Resident alien—All resident aliens must carry an Alien Registration Card for presentation to U.S. Immigration upon reentering the United States.

Certificate of registration (personal effects)—Customs officials might question any personal articles of foreign manufacture (such as cameras, hunting and fishing gear, or any item that may be construed as having been purchased abroad). Before departure:

1. Register these items with Customs.
2. Fill out Customs Form 4457, "Certificate of Registration for Personal Effects Taken Abroad."
3. Bring several copies of the form along to the foreign port of entry.
4. Show this certificate to Customs officers each time the items are declared.

Note: It is not mandatory to file this form, but it can eliminate unnecessary duties, delays, and disagreements upon return to the United States.

Inbound travel

Customs airports—All aircraft entering the United States must land at a U.S. Customs facility airport. These airports are referred to as "designated," "international," "landing rights," and "user fee" airports. They are listed in the following directory of "U.S. Customs Facility Airports."

Advance notice of arrival—Pilots must provide advance notice of estimated time of arrival (ETA) to Customs and Immigration. (It is the ultimate responsibility of the pilot to ensure that Customs is properly notified.)

Customs and immigration inspection—Pilots and passengers must clear U.S. Customs and Immigration inspection.

Customs declaration—Declare any articles acquired abroad. Include items brought home for another person, any article intended for sale or use in business, alterations or repairs made abroad, and gifts received while abroad. Remember to declare currency in excess of $10,000.

Duty and tax—Items may be subject to duty and internal revenue tax.

Exemptions—Returning residents are allowed certain exemptions from paying duty on items obtained while abroad. These exemptions are described in a booklet titled Know Before You Go, published by the Department of the Treasury, U.S. Customs Service. Call AOPA's Aviation Services department to obtain a copy.

Note: A sample Declaration Form (to be used for travel inbound or outbound) is available at www.aopa.org/members/files/avfax/9930.pdf (AOPA members only access).

How to provide advance notice of ETA

Advise Customs—Advise Customs of your ETA by telephone and flight plan. Normally, one-hour advance notice (based on the time the Customs officer receives the notification and not on the time that the flight plan or message is filed or transmitted by the pilot) is sufficient. Failure to do so violates Customs regulations and will result in a severe penalty (see "Fines").

Telephone numbers—Customs telephone numbers are included in the following listings of U.S. Customs facility airports or in the AOPA's Guide to Customs. A 24-hour national number is available in the event you cannot reach Customs at your intended airport of arrival; telephone 800/973-2867.

ADCUS—You may also advise Customs of your ETA by adding the abbreviation "ADCUS" (advise Customs) to the "remarks" section of your flight plan. However, the ADCUS notation in the flight plan does not guarantee that Customs personnel will receive the ETA notification. ETA notification is your responsibility. It is therefore strongly suggested that you advise Customs of your ETA by telephone to ensure they have been notified, and that you ask for the name and badge number of the Customs official.

Landing rights

Notification/permission—Although the ADCUS notation will be treated as an application for permission to land at a landing rights airport, you are still responsible for ensuring that Customs is properly notified. Landing rights can be denied if inspection service cannot be provided.

Changed destination

Permission—If you need to change the intended airport of destination en route, obtain permission from Customs.

Confirmation—Receive definite confirmation from Customs permitting a change before altering the airport of destination. Without this permission, you may not legally land at an airport not specified in your flight plan.

How to obtain permission/confirmation—Contact ATC or FSS personnel and ask them to relay the message to Customs and to give notification when Customs confirms the request.

Hours

Service hours—Free service is generally provided from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Sunday, including holidays. Tours of duty at airports, however, are based on the need for service and are altered at some airports to coincide with schedule changes and peak work loads.

Note: Prior to departure, contact the Customs officer in charge at the U.S. airport of intended return to ascertain the hours during which free service normally can be expected.

Overtime

Fee—Private aircraft will be processed free of overtime charges by U.S. Customs. However, other inspection agencies (U.S. Department of Agriculture, Centers for Disease Control, and U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service) may charge overtime for services provided after regular working hours.

Fees

Processing fee—$25 per calendar year. This fee may be paid in advance. Submit form CF 339-A with payment to U.S. Customs Service, Decal Program Administrator, P.O.Box 382030, Pittsburgh, PA 15250-8030. If the fee is not paid in advance, it will be collected by the inspecting officer at the time of first arrival in a calendar year.

Receipt/decals—Upon payment, you will receive a receipt and a decal to be displayed on the aircraft 18 inches aft of the pilot's door. The receipt should be kept with the aircraft.

Note: For further information or forms, call 317/298-1200 (ext. 1245) or go online (www.aopa.org/members/files/travel/customs/339a.pdf).
User fee—Certain airports that do not meet the criteria of a port of entry may petition to become a designated user fee airport. Private aircraft using these airports are obligated to pay costs associated with their processing. Call the airport for an estimate of the charges. Fees may range from $100 to $300, depending on the time of service.

Fines

Minimum penalty—$5,000 for the first violation, $10,000 for the second violation. Customs may also seize the aircraft, depending on the nature of the violation.

Common violations:

- Failure to report arrival.
- Failure to obtain landing rights.
- Failure to provide advance notice of arrival.
- Failure to provide a penetration report on southern border.
- Failure to provide required documents.
- Departing without permission or discharging passengers or cargo without permission.
- Importation of contraband, including agricultural materials or undeclared merchandise.

U.S. Customs Facility Airports

This list of U.S. Customs facility airports provides information regarding customs and immigration service only. Refer to the U.S. landing facility directory, starting on page 3-1, for detailed airport and FBO information.

• Customs requires advance notice of arrival to U.S. Customs at or nearest the airport of entry. Even though flight plan notification service is available, pilots should contact Customs directly. ETA notification is the pilot's responsibility. Failure to do so violates Customs regulations and will result in a severe penalty.

Note: See "CANPASS" at the beginning of this section for detailed information on participating in this program.

• To assure timely inspection in all states, Customs requests that all calls (advance notices of arrival), regardless of when service is required, be made during regular business hours indicated in the following listings. When "Service on-call only" is listed, Customs usually does not staff that airport. Requests for service outside the usual operating hours should be made the preceding day.

- To avoid overtime charges, contact Customs before departure to verify the hours during which free service normally can be expected.
- When "user fee charges will apply" is indicated, pilots are advised to call the airport for an estimate of the charges. Fees may range from $100 to $300, depending on the time of service.
- Any number in parentheses after a Customs entry indicates the maximum number of passengers that may be cleared.
- In the event you cannot reach Customs at your intended airport of arrival call 800/973-2867.
- Landing rights airports appear in upper/lower case and require prior permission from Customs to land. International airports appear in upper case and don't require prior permission to land.
